Informational Workshops

The West Coast Groundfish Trawl Fishery will now be managed under a new, innovative approach known as a catch share program to achieve long-term ecological and economic sustainability of the fishery resources and fishing communities. NOAA Fisheries is hosting several informal workshops to provide an overview of the new regulations and an opportunity for questions and answers.

Workshops at:

Pacific Fishery Management Council meeting, September 13-14

DoubleTree Hotel Boise-Riverside, 2900 Chinden Blvd, Boise, Idaho

Monday, September 13th, 7 - 9 pm

Topics: Observer Requirements, Catch Monitors

Tuesday, September 14th, 7 - 9 pm
