

7.0 LIST OF PREPARERS

7.1 U.S. FISH AND WILDLIFE SERVICE

Sheila Larsen, Senior Staff Biologist, Conservation Planning Branch, Sacramento Fish and Wildlife Office

John Robles, Fish and Wildlife Biologist, Ecological Services, Pacific Southwest Region

7.2 NATIONAL MARINE FISHERIES SERVICE

Gary Stern, Fisheries Biologist, San Francisco Bay Team Leader

Shelby Mendez, National Environmental Policy Act Coordinator

Amanda Morrison, Fisheries Biologist

7.3 CONSULTANTS

TRA Environmental Sciences, Inc.,

Taylor Peterson, Project Manager. Ms. Peterson has over 29 years of experience at TRA in environmental analysis and project management. Her area of expertise is ecology.

Victoria Harris, Cultural Resources, Biology, Socioeconomics. With over 28 years of experience at TRA, Ms. Harris has particular expertise in preparing Habitat Conservation Plans (HCPs) and Natural Community Conservation Plans (NCCPs) for state and federally listed threatened and endangered species.

Christina Lau, Air Quality, Noise, Public Services, Hazardous and Toxic Materials/Waste, Hydrology and Water Quality. Ms. Lau has 11 years of experience preparing CEQA & NEPA documents on a variety of project types.

Janet Cochrane, Land Use, Geology. Ms. Cochrane has over 12 years of professional experience in CEQA analysis and planning projects.

Sara Krier, Biology. Ms. Krier has six years of professional experience with a background in environmental policy, ecology, and watershed science. Ms. Krier's area of expertise is in watershed analysis.

Rebecca Sloan, Biology. Ms. Sloan has four years of professional experience and a background in marine and aquatic sciences, coastal ecology and resource management. One of Ms. Sloan's areas of expertise is the monitoring and habitat assessment of aquatic ecosystems in Coastal California, specifically in San Mateo and Santa Cruz counties.

Hexagon Transportation Consultants, Inc.

Mike Waller, Traffic, Principal Associate. Mr. Waller is one of the company's founding partners. He has over 30 years experience in transportation planning and traffic modeling.